Democratic Education Assures Victory

Democratic education with the ideal of democracy as its guiding star develops self-reliant, broad-minded citizens. The youth of the world of to-day will be facing an enormous task in the world of to-morrow, that of inspiring the belief that all people are created equal and that the theme of peace is freedom. Democratic education assures victory not only over our aggressors of to-day, but also over political and social problems of the future. With the restoration to all nations of their God-given rights, we may hope for the only worth while Victory—the triumph of good over evil in men's hearts—and the establishment of a lasting peace.

OUR HOME OF DEMOCRACY

DEVELOP DEMOCRATIC EDUCATION AT

HUGHESVILLE HIGH SCHOOL

HUGHESVILLE, PENNSYLVANIA

★ Heritage

Our heritage is America, a heritage bestowed upon us by generations of great men of great minds. The noble things for which America is synonomous, our freedoms, our government and our schools are symbols of the ideals man so long dreamed of, now become the birthright of every American, the creed by which he lives, and which he ever stands ready to give his life to preserve.

★ Vision

To make to-morrow a better place in which to live we mainly need vision. The rapid developments of the past few years have taught us that we must view events on a larger scale. A clear, far-seeing comprehension of our place among nations of the world is the challenge for our democracy's future success.

★ Action

Activities in our school life develop strong principles of democracy—action and co-operation. Self-directed activities with capable guidance and leadership provide the training period for active and intelligent citizenship. To-day, as in ancient times, athletic activities are tests determining not only physical strength but also character and sportsmanship. The only sport, basketball, played in our high school requires all three of these qualities.

Dedication

We, the class of 1944, sincerely dedicate our yearbook to Miss Helen Reece, one of our former teachers, who with unfailing loyalty and helpful co-operation guided us safely to our senior year.

To you, Miss Reece, we express our deepest gratitude and appreciation.

Class History

FRESHMAN HISTORY

On September 3, 1940, we began our high school career. A grand total of 60 members was counted the first day while we were on our way to making new friends.

We all managed to get together in Mr. Creveling's room to elect class officers: president, Jeanne Odell; vice president, Carroll Ginter; secretary, Carl Weaver; and treasurer, Ruth Myers.

A weiner roast at Ruth Myers' farm was our only social event of the year.

SOPHOMORE HISTORY

September 1941, brought us back together again as Silly Sophs. The first thing we accomplished was the election of class officers: president, George Ellison; vice president, Chester Sones; secretary, Joyce Myers; and treasurer, Carroll Ginter.

The highlights of our second year together were several parties. We ended the year with an enjoyable picnic at Rolling Green Park.

JUNIOR HISTORY

Again another September called us, this time for our next-to-last year in school. Early in the term we elected the following officers: president, Aldine Sheets; vice president, Jeanne Odell; secretary, Charlotte Krause; and treasurer, Raymond Minnier.

During the year three members of the class—Chester Sones, Charles Simmons, and George Odell joined the Navy.

"Tomboy", our class play and one of the big events of the year for us, proved a success both financially and otherwise.

Then came the Junior-Senior Prom on May 20. Because of conditions caused by the war we were hindered in our decorating. The theme centered around a huge birthday cake, in celebration of the school's fiftieth anniversary. Each of the candles stood for one of the graduating classes in the history of the school.

SENIOR HISTORY

Our fourth and last September we all gathered together as Dignified Sen,-iors, 45 strong.

During the summer we lost Pat Haynes to the Marines and Corson Smith to the Army.

Class officers for our Senior year are as follows: president, George Ellison; vice president, Bernadine Gray; secretary, Jeanne Odell; and treasurer, Carroll Ginter.

A weiner roast at Beaver Lake and some parties in the auditorium constituted our social events.

Our class play, "Aunt Tillie Goes to Town" was a riotous success. No one will forget the fun we had putting it on.

Finally May rolled around with plenty of work for everyone. Class Night, Baccalaureate Service and Commencement went by so fast that we scarcely realized we were graduated and out on our own. Every member of the class can proudly say, "Ours was one of the finest classes ever to graduate from Hughesville High School."

Harold L. Schaefer—Principal

We, the Class of 1944, are not unmindful of the indispensable part which the Board of Education plays in the successful consummation of our school program.

Because of their unselfish efforts and hearty co-operation our school curriculum has been expanded to include courses of study to suit the inclinations of most students. Art, music, athletics, home economics, and vocational training, along with the regular academic and commercial courses, provide opportunities for the high school student who wishes to broaden his education.

We take this occasion to thank the members of the Board of Education for the time and effort which they spent in making our school days worth-while.

Will

In compliance with the laws of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, we hereby do publish this, our last will and testament. Being of sound mind and complete memory we make these few bequests and dispose of our meager possessions as follows:

First, we order that our funeral services be held at which time we shall pass forever from this institution wherein we dwelt four years, and that we shall be remembered with due despect and reverence.

Secondly, because of our loving and generous nature we dispose of our estate, both real and unreal property as directed below:

We leave our hard working faculty wishing them a quick recovery and hoping they use all the time necessary to recuperate from the educational careers of the class of '44. We feel sure that this rest is necessary as the class of '45 is due to arrive in three months.

Eldora Boyer leaves her erect posture to Donnie Andrews.

Donald Bubb leaves his smooth technique to Elf McClain.

Margaret Eichenlaub wills her small stature to Emma Brungard.

George Ellison wills his studious attitude to Bud Kisner.

Ida Evans wills her way with silks to the Japanese.

Frances Gardner wills a warm seat on the school bus to Max Phillips.

June Gardner leaves her silliness to Doris Dentler.

Jane Gautsch wills her personality to Esta Frantz.

Carroll Ginter leaves his ability to stay home nights to Blower Fought.

Grover Gordner leaves his prize winning hogs to Sammy Reed.

Leona Gordner leaves her timidness to Mary Margaret McClintock.

Bernadine Gray leaves her singing ability to Joyce Lassinger and hopes she makes good at Jud's.

Earl Guyer leaves . . . and the faculty is glad of it.

Kathryn Hess wills her ability to get along with Leo Temple to June Oliver.

Gerald Houseknecht leaves Shirley Shaffer, and she is very happy.

Leon Houseknecht wills his handsome figure to Howard Fox.

Willard Hutchins leaves his mop of hair to Mr. Lunger.

Raymond Minnier wills his pessimistic attitude to Jeanne Poust.

George Myers wills his green car to anyone who wants to go to Grooms.

Ruth Myers leaves her knack of making cream puffs to Miss McGeehan.

Joyce Myers wills her rules and regulations to Susan Diggan.

Jeanne Odell wills her slim waistline to Kenny Poust.

Audrey Parker leaves her name of Punch to Viola Parker.

Hilda Phillips wills her marrying intentions to Ruth Gray.

Carl Poust leaves his success at Rishel's to Bob Edkin.

Eleanor Poust leaves her square dancing ability to Miss Roan, if the faculty doesn't mind.

Raymond Reed wills his soft, smooth, romantic voice to Fred Schenck.

Alfred Rogers wills his pleasing personality to Max Phillips.

Max Rupert leaves a bottle of hypo to Mr. Creveling.

James Shaffer wills his way with the women to Arnold Fox.

Carl Shaner leaves and will never return.

Helen Shaner wills her spelling book to Miss Shipman.

Aldine Sheets wills her "wild party games" to Mary Alice Springer.

Grant Smith leaves one pair of sneakers in perfect condition to Mr. Schaefer.

Audrey Snyder wills her necking to Mary Fought.

Gleason Sones wills his way with the fairer sex to Charlie Waters.

Clair Stugard wills his magic pool cue to Harold Akers.

Ralph Stugart wills his Sinatra voice to Booger Armstrong.

Leo Temple leaves his sleepy eyes to Russel Dugan to sight on the 8 ball.

Lois Jean Thomas wills her job at the silk mill to any one who wants it.

Carl Weaver wills her innocent look to Carlene Gray. You need it, kid.

Zenith Wintersteen leaves his ability of hoofing to Unityville to the Boy Scouts.

As per section 12A of laws concerning wills and testaments, we do hereby appoint Harold L. Schaefer as executor of the above will, with the understanding that each and all sections and divisions shall be carried out faithfully and truly. In accordance with section 14B we hereby set our hands and seal this second day of June, Nineteen Hundred and Forty-four A. D.

Class of Nineteen Forty-four

Prophecy

Hear ye! Listen to the news of the great sage of things to come. The Hughesville Fair is in full swing and a new fortune-teller has come to town. We gaze into the crystal ball and lo and behold the faces of the Class of 1944 appear 20 years hence before our wondering eyes. Draw near and hark unto the words of this omnipotent seer who sees everything, hears nothing, and tells plenty!!!

Eldora Boyer has recently won the title of "America's Beauty Queen." She and her husband make a nice looking couple touring the country.

Don Bubb has been appointed manager, chief clerk, second man, and errand boy at the A&P branch at Chippewa.

Margaret Eichenlaub still keeps her late hours, but she is reading to the little Gardners.

George Ellison, after twenty years of talking, has finally discovered that he was vaccinated with a phonograph needle.

Ida Evans wanted to get out of Hughesville and she did. Our last report came from the North Pole where she is rubbing noses with the Eskimos.

Frances Gardner is still undecided about marrying Carl.

June Gardner is still silly, but Bob says that's one way to keep married life gay.

Jane Gautsch took her position in the Senior Class Play to heart. She is now the only woman chiropractor this side of Picture Rocks.

Carroll Ginter has discovered a cure for the love-lorn called, "No love, period."

Grover Gordner has now smiled at two girls. You're improving, Grover. Keep it up.

Leona Gordner and her soldier are running a large farm just outside the metropolis of Unityville.

Bernadine Gray is running an Old Maid's Home in Picture Rocks just across the road from the Bachelors' Home.

Earl Guyer's experiences as conductor of the amateur contest in one of the Recreational programs fitted him to take Walter Winchell's place and he is now proclaiming the merits of Jergen's Lotion.

Kathryn Hess has proved there's dynamite in small packages. She and the old Ford recently went places. You guessed it. They both exploded.

Gerald Houseknecht and Shirley Ann are still trying to make up their minds.

Leon Houseknecht and Katie are happily married and are now raising handsome little Houseknechts.

Willard Hutchins is still traveling from Unityville to Millville trying to make up his mind which girl is the nicer.

Charlotte Krause is now night supervisor at the Geisinger Hospital.

Stanley Miller has recently made a hit in music. Some say he'll be another Glenn Miller.

Raymond Minnier, the world's greatest jitterbug, broke his leg the other day and broke his heart, too.

George Myers has discovered the fourth dimension and they say Albert Einstein is very angry.

Prophecy

Joyce Myers is now head waitress at the Forest Inn and her husband, Bob, is chef.

Ruth Myers, the world's most dangerous chemist, has invented a cure-all for sinus trouble, fallen arches, pink toothbrush and stiff neck.

Jeanne Odell has a job! She now doubles as a string of spaghetti in an Italian restaurant in New York.

Audrey Parker and Don Temple have just purchased a yacht because Don feels more at home on the water.

Hilda Phillips spends most of her time scrubbing for Max and the little Temples.

Carl Poust and Josephine are the co-owners of Rishell's and Hughesville Textile Co. Inc.

Eleanor Poust is now living in a little white cottage with Paul.

Raymond Reed recently purchased the Reeder Lumber Yard.

Alfred Rogers is now a Major in the Army and has 12,000 men under him.

Max Rupert is our new Secretary of Agriculture.

Jim Shaffer is still working at the sawmill. He has just begun his third term as president of the W. C. T. U.

Carl Shaner is now teaching his young 'uns how to behave in school.

Helen Shaner has placed her latest painting called "Behind the Scenes of Eagles Mere" on the market.

Aldine Sheets has risen to the heights of a world-renowned poet. She and June Smith are running neck to neck.

Grant Smith is now married for the third time. His hall romance at Hughesville evidently gave him a good start.

Audrey Snyder enlisted as a WAVE way back in '44, went to Africa and married an Arab. They were getting along happily the last time we heard.

Gleason Sones recently knocked out Joe Louis in the first second of the first round of his first fight.

Clair Stugard, after sighting over a cue ball for twenty years, is able to play the eight ball into the side pocket of the next table.

Ralph Stugart took Frank Sinatra's place and all the girls are swooning over him. This doesn't bother Ralph because he is happily married and has three little "crooners".

Leo Temple became a hermit and stocked up on provisions so he won't have to mooch off everybody.

Lois Jean Thomas we now see as an ex-soldier's wife, busy keeping house and working at the silk mill.

Carl Weaver's large feet have netted him a huge profit by exhibiting them at the New York World's Fair of 1964.

Zenith Wintersteen is with the Ringling Bros. Circus as a contortionist. He nearly passed away last week after tying himself into a knot—from which he could not get himself untied.

Jolly Juniors

The jolly juniors gathering together in September "43" found that they had a total of forty-two members.

The election of officers included: Harvey Armstrong, president; Irvin Boyer, vice president; Esta Frantz, secretary; and Pauline Kilgus, treasurer.

Among the many social affairs were: a weiner roast, several parties, and the annual Junior-Senior prom in May, the largest social event of the year. The class play, "Sulphur and Molasses" was a financial success.

Robert Warburton, one of their former classmates, is serving in the Navy.

Class advisers are Mrs. Waters and Miss Roan.

When the Sophomore Class assembled this year, there were sixty-six members.

The usual procedure of electing officers took place early in September. The following officers were chosen: president, Helen McCarty; vice president, Bill Hill; secretary, Thelma Sones; treasurer, June Oliver.

Among the several social events were: a weiner roast, a roller skating party, a Christmas party and numerous friendly get-togethers.

Miss McGeehan and Mr. Kelsey served as worthy class advisers.

The Ambitious Freshmen

As the freshmen assembled this year, they found they had a total of forty-six members, several of whom were recent additions to the class.

Anxious to start their high school career, they met in one room and held the usual election. The following officers were chosen for 1943-44: Arlene Shaner, president; George Montgomery, vice president; and Lucille Buhl, secretary.

Their activities included a roller skating party, a weiner roast, and other parties.

The season was noted for its number of exceedingly close games. Every one was exciting and the spectators responded with a warmth of enthusiasm that could not be equaled anywhere else. In none of the games this year was the score in favor of the opposing team by more than four points.

In comparing this season with other seasons it was an improvement.

The following boys made up Hughesville's "Iron Team": Weaver—a senior, who really knows how to make angle shots; Bubb—his all around technique made him the iron man of the team; Rogers—is noted for his close guard and cool attitude; Guyer—also with a cool attitude, puts a surprise forth with a tricky shot; Houseknecht—comes through with his ability to sink those long shots; Armstrong—with his ability to get that ball and win for Hughesville.

Next year's team will be made up of Juniors and Sophomores. We all hope they make as good a showing as this year's team made.

Cheerleaders

At almost every basketball game that was played at home or away, cheerleaders could be seen leading the students in the war call of our school. They worked hard to get new ideas and to show the Hughesville team that they were behind them with all their might. Three seniors, Jeanne Odell, Raymond Minnier, and Ruth Myers, cheered their last game with the juniors, Maxine Murray and Susan Diggan.

The cheerleaders express their appreciation for having had the honor of representing Hughesville High School. May next term's cheerleaders have a very successful season!

Student Council

The student Council provides the only form of self-government in our school. It was organized four years ago, and several of our classmates have been worthy members.

The chief function of the council is to promote good will among the students of the school and to better the school in every way possible. During the term 1943-44, the council sponsored some dances, promoted the selling of war bonds and stamps, conducted several drives for tin cans, presented the school with an honor roll and planned many interesting assembly programs. Several of these included excellent outside entertainment.

The officers and committee chairmen are as follows: president, Ruth Myers; vice president, Patty Bubb; secretary, Donald Bubb; treasurer, James Shaffer; assembly committee, Donald Bubb; etiquette committee, Patty Bubb; civic and social affairs, Audrey Parker, scholarship committee, Mary Smith; activities committee, Jeanne Odell.

Mrs. Fetter, Mr. Kelsey, and Mr. Ashkar, the advisers, have devoted much of their time to helping us in every way possible.

Monarch Staff

When the staff got together last fall, it had the big task of publishing four issues of the school paper. All the scribes worked hard and burnt much midnight oil. The staff divided into three departments—the Commercial, under Miss Roan; the English, under Mrs. Waters; and the Art, under Mrs. Fetter, has worked diligently to better school conditions. It tried to fulfill the students' desires and to publish a school paper much improved in make up. The Leap Year Issue, February 29, climaxed the year's work.

Girls' Chorus

Each Monday morning during club period the notes of favorite songs may be heard coming from the stage. The chorus, composed of senior high girls, sing to their hearts' content.

During the first semester the chorus, under the supervision of Mrs. Klementik. rendered a musical part to the annual Christmas program. The last semester's chorus, directed by Miss Stuart, perfected a number of new songs both patriotic and comic. Everyone should be proud of this ever expanding organization that has advanced and improved by leaps and bounds.

Orchestra

Decidedly smaller than it has ever been, but with plenty of enthusiasm, is the high school orchestra. Eighteen students are members of this year's orchestra which is directed by the music supervisor, Miss Stuart.

Every Monday afternoon faint strains of a very familiar melody may be heard coming from the stage. The student body, as it passes the stage door, well knows that a small group of talented musicians is intent upon mastering some piece. At times the tones sound weird but then again one feels like stopping at the door to listen. We're all proud of our little orchestra and wish it continued success.

Commercial Course

Miss Roan, our new commercial teacher, spent much of her time and effort in making the commercial course a success this year.

The Junior typing classes are able to type an average of forty words per minute for five minutes and to take dictation in shorthand from eighty to a hundred words per minute.

The seniors take dictation from one hundred to one hundred and twenty words per minute. In the salesmanship classes several sales talks were given by the students during the year. At the end of the term they prepared sales talks which lasted from fifteen to twenty minutes.

All the typing of the Monarch and the Yearbook material was done by the commercial students.

Commercial Art

Working out original ideas, the student artists completed many interesting assignments.

Some of the outstanding projects during the fall were advertisements for the Student Council handbooks, quaint silhouettes for the class room doors, and illustrations of the various kinds of lettering and monograming. The two weeks before Christmas found both the art room and the home economics room the scenes of great activities. The annual painting of the windows and Christmas cards was taking place. Later in the year the group made travel posters, magazine covers, fashion designs, poster displays, and a book on the life of some child.

Future Farmers of America

Thirty boys were enrolled in vocational agriculture for 1943-44. This group enrolled one hundred per cent in F. F. A. work. They participated in the Future Farmer and Home Maker Fair at Williamsport October 21-23.

The boys took orders and distributed seeds as a community service, giving the proceeds to the individuals. They assisted in organizing an O. S. Y. A. course in farm machinery repair for adults and other school farmers. This was a ten weeks' course.

The group held regular monthly meetings. The officers were: president, Grover Gordner; first vice president, Max Rupert; second vice president, Calvin Diltz; secretary, Wilbur Eichenlaub; treasurer, Stanley Miller; reporter, Dean Houseknecht; advisor, William Youngdahl.

A father and son banquet was held to further acquaint the parents with the work being done.

Home Economics

The general aim of the Home Economics department is to develop in the girls skill in management of home making tasks and the ability to establish happy relationships in the family and community. This is accomplished through the units of cooking, sewing, family relationships, social relationships, house care, child care, hobbies, personal grooming and living, manners and social etiquette which are offered to the girls in the Home Economics course.

Just recently a Home Economics club was organized for the high school girls. The purpose of it is to show the relation of home making to leisure activities.

Girl Scouts

No youth organization today is better prepared than our Boy and Girl Scouts. In Hughesville well over seventy girls belong to the Girl Scouts and each girl is willing to do her part in the national crisis.

The girls from seven to ten are in the Brownie Pack, under the supervision of Marion Houseknecht. The whole organization has expanded so greatly that three groups of Intermediate Scouts have been formed. Troop No. 21 is led by Mrs. Glenn Lunger with Irma Herr as assistant. Troop No. 42 is directed by Jean Diggan. The older girls belong to Troop No. 12 with Mrs. Larue Smith and Anita Herr as leaders.

The scouts have carried out activities of all kinds and they are ready to serve home and nation.

Boy Scouts

During the past year the Boy Scouts have done their part in the war effort. Their activities included: collecting paper each month (they collected thirty tons), distributing Red Cross and other handbills and canvassing the town for the Fourth War Loan Drive.

Several scouts went swimming each month at the Y. M. C. A. in Williamsport. Each scout had to pass one test every month in order to qualify for swimming.

The Boy Scouts of Hughesville have $500.00 in War Bonds.

Dignified Seniors

To the Class of 1944:

You have finally reached the goal you have been seeking —graduation from high school.

The past twelve years of your life were carefree, happy days, but days you will in the future look back upon and wish you might relive.

Within a few months you will be widely scattered. This happens during a time of peace, but more quickly during a time of war. May you serve nobly in the home, on the farm, in the factory, in the hospital, in the Army, in the Navy or wherever you may go.

The school has placed certain tools within your hands to better enable you to compete successfully with your classmates and millions of others in earning an honest livelihood. Use these tools to the best advantage for yourself, your fellowmen and your country.

Best wishes to each and every member of the Class of 1944 for a successful career.

"So let the road wind up the hill or down,
Though rough or smooth the journey will be joy,
Still seeking what I sought, when but a boy—
New friendships, high achievement and a crown.
I shall grow old, but never lose life's zest,
Because the road's last turn will be the best."

Good Old Sulphur and Molasses

In keeping with the progress of the class of 1945, "Sulphur and Molasses" was presented November 18-19. It was a domestic three-act comedy written by Ned Albert.

The play was well cast and showed the ability that promises to produce better plays in the future. "Sulphur and Molasses" was directed by Mrs. Louise Waters and it was a success in every way.

The cast included:

Dr. Lance Fairweather ..... Julius Reithoffer
Mrs. Fairweather ..... Patty Bubb
Verna Fairweather ..... June Andrews
Jill Fairweather ..... Loretta Starr
Dr. Edmund Fairweather ..... Charles Waters
Edna Maloney ..... Mary Smith
Malvina Waters ..... Pauline Kilgus
Mrs. Ruth Spratt ..... Barbara Birdsell
Oswald Spratt ..... Marlyn Miller
Janice Morgan ..... Maxine Murray
Archer Turner ..... Harvey Armstrong
Mrs. Margaret Turner ..... Mary Margaret McClintock
Dr. Crosby Benson ..... Samuel Reed
Mrs. Dorothy Goodhue ..... Doris Dentler

PRESENTATION OF THE SENIORS

MARCH 30 - 31, 1944 — 8:00 P. M.

On March 30, and 31, the Senior Class took its final bow as the curtain fell upon its last stage performance. The loud applause, which echoed through the auditorium, gave proof of the class's dramatic ability.

An able directress, an efficient technical staff, and a talented cast helped to make the play a rollicking success.

Act One: Noon of a day in June

Act Two: A few minutes later

Act Three: Late afternoon of the same day

The cast included:

Aunt Tillie ..... Audrey Parker
Lucinda Talbot ..... Bernadine Gray
Pamela Marsh ..... Joyce Myers
Lizzie Parsons ..... Jeanne Odell
Ellen Neeland ..... Aldine Sheets
Ronald Howland ..... Earl Guyer
Luther Lorrimer ..... Raymond Minnier
Mervin Tucker ..... Ralph Stugart
Charlie One Lung ..... James Shaffer
Mrs. Tillie Tucker ..... Ruth Myers
Dr. Hattie Bing ..... Jane Moran Gautsch

THE CLASS OF FORTY-FOUR
By Joyce Myers

Ours was a jolly and gay class,
Happy the years did pass,
We had our picnics and class plays,
But now we say, alas!

CHORUS:

Twelve long years we've spent now with you,
The time has come to say our adieu,
To class rooms and school chums,
The Orange and the Blue,
Ne'er forget us when we are gone,
For mem'ries of dear Hughesville live on,
We'll win through, though guns roar,
The class of Forty-Four.

Tune—"My Buddy"

JUST ANOTHER AVERAGE CLASS
By Joyce Myers

We waited for the time to pass
When we could sigh and say at last;
Now the appointed time has come
To find our school career is done.

We entered the noisy crowded halls
Where silence ne'er was known to fall
We saw our lockers row on row
Into which our books we used to throw.

We often called our school friends "out"
To find what the "fight" was all about
We laughed at silly jokes and pranks,
But to our teachers gave no thanks.

We tried to raise those C's to B's
But in the end some of us got D's
We are no God-sent angels, we'll admit
But to that graduated list, our names submit.

We're just another average class
From Hughesville's portals to be passed
As all others have said before—
"Ne'er forget the class of '44"
